INSPECTOR GENERAL OF PRISONS' OFFICE,
Poona, 30th April 1925.

From

LIEUT.-COLONEL J. H. MURRAY, C.I.E., M.D., I.M.S.,
Inspector General of Prisons,
Bombay Presidency;

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
Home Department, Bombay.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Administration Report for the year 1924 (together with the usual statistical Tables) on Prisons and Jails in the Bombay Presidency (including Sind and Aden).

2. Lieut.-Colonel F. O. N. Mell, C.I.E., M.B., C.M. (Edin.), D.P.H. (Cantab.), I.M.S., was in charge of the Department till 15th August 1924. I officiated for the remainder of the year.

I.—Introductory.

3. The new Central Prison at Hindalgi (near Belgaum) was opened on 3rd January 1924.

Owing to the transfer of Kathiawar to the Government of India, the Jails at Rajkot, Wadhwan and Deesa ceased to come under the control of this Department on 10th October 1924.

The statistics of these Jails for the whole year are however included in this report. The 2nd Class Sub-Jail at Alibag was reduced to the status of a 3rd Class Sub-Jail on 16th November 1924.

The building of the new Jail at Nasik Road which will accommodate 1,500 habitual prisoners was commenced during the year. Progress was also made in the erection of the new Criminal and Civil Jail for the City of Bombay in Arthur Road. It will probably be ready for occupation in February 1926. Plans have been approved by Government for a new and separate Female Jail at Yeravda which will accommodate 100 women. It is also hoped that a new public work employing jail labour will be commenced at Dahitna (Sholapur) in 1926 to take the place of Visapur tank which is approaching completion. If all these plans materialize there will normally be sufficient accommodation for prisoners in the Presidency proper though a scheme for enlarging Hindalgi Central Prison is also under consideration as a stand-by.

In Sind however the overcrowding is very serious and usually amounts to 50 per cent. in excess of sanctioned accommodation. The situation is worst at Sukkur where the jail area is very small and where at times nearly double the proper number of prisoners have to be housed. It is proposed to relieve the present position by extensions to Hyderabad Central and Karachi District Prisons and by raising Shikarpur again to the status of a special Prison. Plans in connection with these schemes are now being prepared by the Public Works Department.

During the year a system of barbed wire fences round the barracks was completed at Visapur as a result of which the use of the bel-chain was discontinued at that place.

II.—Jail Population.

Admissions of Convicts and Undertrials.

4. This may be summarized as follows :—

		1923.	1924.
Total population at commencement of year ...		11,788	12,788
Admitted during year (excluding transfers).	Convicted ...	15,566	15,275
	Civil	580	635
	Undertrial ...	66,348	71,548.
Released during the year		81,494	87,935
Total population at close of year... ...		12,788	12,311
Average daily population		12,138	12,466

5. The outstanding feature is the great rise in the number of Undertrial prisoners admitted.

These were received as follows :—

	1923.	1924.
Into large jails	7,207	7,976
Into Sub-Jails and Lock-ups ...	59,141	63,572
Total ...	66,348	71,548

In spite however of the heavy increase in the number of admissions into Sub-Jails and Lock-ups, the average daily population of those institutions fell by 249, viz. :—

1923	... 1,927
1924	... 1,678

The inference is that on the whole cases of Undertrial prisoners were disposed of with greater expedition. I am not prepared to offer any explanation as to why so many more of these prisoners were committed to jail than in 1923.

6. Detailed information regarding each Jail will be found in the General Summary. Owing to the frequently recurring necessity of transferring prisoners from one place to another to relieve overcrowding comment upon the comparative statistics of individual Jails is not of any real value.

7. In connection with the overcrowding of the Sind Jails it is interesting to note that the total admissions in that area amounted to 7,294 in 1924 as compared with 7,130 in 1923 so there is no indication that the proposed additional accommodation will become unnecessary in the near future. A striking feature of the Sind Jail convict population is the large proportion of prisoners confined under the Security Sections of the Criminal Procedure Code. On 15th December 1924 these numbered 602 out of a total of 3,108 convicted prisoners. It is understood that local circumstances in Sind frequently render it impossible to secure evidence sufficient to convict known depredators of specific crimes and hence it is imperative to take action against them under Chapter VIII of the Criminal Procedure Code.

Releases.

8. The number of transfers from one Jail to another increased during the year chiefly owing to the opening of the Hindalgi Central Prison.

9. The Chief Commissioner, Port Blair, having asked for a number of Star Class convicts, 37 prisoners sentenced to transportation volunteered to go and were duly deported. On the other hand 31 prisoners were received back from the Andamans of whom 23 were repatriated for medical reasons and 8 as incorrigible.

10. Four hundred and nineteen prisoners were released by order of Government as compared with 1,218 during the previous year. The decrease is mainly due to the fact that the Advisory Committee on long term prisoners deals with smaller numbers than its predecessor the Prison Enquiry Committee, whose scope included prisoners with short sentences. Details are as follows :—

	Males.	Females.
Released on the recommendation of the Prison Enquiry Committee ...	54	...
Released on the recommendation of the Advisory Board	259	7
Released and sent to Salvation Army Homes, Bombay	18	...
Released and sent to Criminal Tribes Settlement, Bijapur	1	...
Released and sent to Bijapur Released Prisoners' Aid Society	...	1
Released and sent to Pandharpur Widow's Home and Orphanage Foundling Asylum	...	3
Released and deported to United Kingdom	11	...	(European soldiers.)

	Males.	Females.
Released on other grounds	48	...
Released on the grounds of sickness ...	15	2
Total ...	406	13

11. Thirty-one prisoners were transferred to Mental Hospitals as against 10 in the previous year. This is not to be taken as evidence of an increase of insanity in Jails but is due to greater energy on the part of Superintendents and Medical Officers in transferring lunatics. It is a considerable temptation to keep a harmless insane prisoner in Jail rather than go to the trouble of preparing the necessary documents and completing all the formalities preliminary to transfer to a Mental Hospital.

12. The increased proportion of prisoners released under the Remission System is due to the extension of that System to prisoners sentenced to 6 months or over. Previously ordinary remission could not be earned by persons with sentences of less than one year.

13. At the close of the year there were 17 foreigners confined under section 3 of Act III of 1864 for returning to Bombay after having been deported and one Iraqi Political prisoner who was detained in Prison in this Presidency at the request of the High Commissioner in Iraq.

14. Nine prisoners were admitted during the year for offences against the State under sections 124(A), 153(A), 188 and 500, Indian Penal Code, and eleven under section 108, Criminal Procedure Code. This class of prisoner gave very little trouble to jail authorities during the period under review.

15. Civil Prisoners.

	1923.	1924.
Remained at commencement of year ...	27	42
Received	580	635
Discharged	565	627
Remained at end of year	42	50

The total cost was Rs. 12,717 as compared with Rs. 11,999 during the previous year the increase being mainly due to the revision of pay of warders in Bombay. The rations of Civil prisoners are of course paid for by their creditors.

16. Statement No. II shows details of admissions as regards Religion, Age, Education and Occupation.

Race, Religion, Education and previous occupation.

The figures do not show any striking difference as compared with the previous year.

Juvenile Criminals.

17. Forty-five prisoners under 16 years of age were admitted as compared with 49 during the previous year. The following is a list of those sent to Jail for three months or less.

Of the remaining 14 prisoners—

6 were sentenced to over three months and up to six months.

6 were sentenced to over six months and up to one year.

2 were sentenced to over one year and up to four years.

45

The undesirability of sending children to prison for short periods has so often been commented on that further remarks on the subject are unnecessary more especially as the Children's Act will shortly come into force.

It is satisfactory to note that 285 cases of juvenile criminals of less than 16 years of age were dealt with under section 562, Criminal Procedure Code, as compared with 176 in 1923.

Juvenile Adults.

18. Two hundred and four male prisoners of from 16 to 20 years of age were received into the Dharwar Juvenile Jail as compared with 211 during the previous year. Under the present rules only non-habitual criminals who have been sentenced to at least one year's imprisonment are eligible for admission to this Jail. The result is that a large number of the inmates consists of those guilty of murder or other crimes of sudden passion who are not in particular need of reformation. An institution of this sort which is specially devoted to mental, moral, physical and industrial training ought (like Borstal Institutions in England) to be reserved for the reception of adolescent prisoners who have criminal tendencies or associations.

Under the present system the young thief receives a succession of short sentences which he undergoes in an ordinary jail with the result that he becomes a confirmed criminal whereas if the law allowed him to be sentenced for his first or second offence to detention for at least a year in a Borstal Institution there would be every hope of turning him into a respectable citizen. A Borstal Act would be necessary but it need only be a very short and simple one. For the present it would probably not be practicable to arrange an efficient system of Probation Officers for the supervision of released adolescents and so that portion of the English Borstal Act could be omitted. The main point is to get the young criminal early in his career into an institution where he can be kept sufficiently long to bring reformatory influences to bear on him.

Sentences.

19. The number of prisoners sentenced to simple imprisonment was 1,177 as compared with 1,021 in the previous year. The increase is mainly due to the amendment of the Criminal Procedure Code prohibiting the award of rigorous imprisonment to persons sent to jail in default of giving security under section 109, Criminal Procedure Code. Many of these prisoners are habituals with several previous convictions and it is clearly wrong that such persons should be maintained for months or years in entire idleness at the public expense.

It is suggested that instructions might be issued to the Police that, wherever possible, prisoners should be charged under Section 110 instead of under Section 109. They can then be sentenced to rigorous imprisonment if they fail to produce security.

20. 724 prisoners sentenced to 7 days' imprisoment or less were admitted to H. M.'s Common Prison, Bombay, as compared with 631 during the previous yeaf. The increase indicates that such sentences are not deterrent and they are certainly not reformatory. At the same time one must realize the difficulties of Magistrates in dealing with petty crime in a large Indian City like Bombay. The accused probably cannot pay a fine and something more than a mere warning is frequently called for if the public is to be protected. Whipping may be given in some cases but often there will seem to be nothing left but a short term of imprisonment.

21. 4,334 prisoners who had been previously convicted were admitted during the year as compared with 4,141 in 1923. Only 6 habituals were identified by jail officials as against 60 in the previous year.

The number imprisoned for the first time in default of finding security under Chapter VIII, Criminal Procedure Code, was 910 as against 828 in the previous year. Of these 369 were admitted into Bombay Jails, 270 into Sind Jails and only 271 into all the other Jails in the Presidency.

Habitual prisoners are invariably kept apart from others during the night and also, so far as is practicable, during the day. Complete separation is, however, almost impossible unless habituals are housed in separate institutions, such as the House of Correction in Bombay.

III.—Discipline.

Warders.

22. The strength of the warder staff was 974 as compared with 895 during the previous year the increase being due to the opening of Hindalgi Central Prison. 27 per cent. of the warder staff changed during the year by reason of resignation, discharge and dismissal.

	1923.	1924.
Resigned	108	94
Discharged	30	97
Dismissed	39	73
Imprisoned	3	2
	180	266

These figures reflect increasing discontent. Warders have a hard time wih long hours and monotonous work carried on always under the eye of authority. The Indian Jails Committee examined this question very fully and recommended that warders in any locality should invariably be better off financially than the Police. This recommendation has, however, not been accepted in this Presidency. Nowhere are the warders better off than the Police and in Thana, Ahmedabad and Sind the latter receive local allowances which are not given to warders who are consequently discontented. Under present conditions a satisfied and efficient warder service cannot be hoped for.

During the year Government increased the pay of the Bombay City Jail Warders to a scale similar to that of the Bombay Police.

Convict Officers.

23. The average daily number of Convict Officers (Overseers and Night watchmen) was 1,115 as against 1,008 in the previous year. The increase was due to the opening of the Hindalgi Central Prison. Their work and conduct were generally satisfactory and their abolition is not to be thought of as financial circumstances do not now (and probably never will) permit of their replacement by an equally reliable paid staff.

Habituals are promoted to be Convict Night Watchmen in all jails and are employed to patrol barracks set apart for habitual prisoners. At the House of Correction they are also promoted to be Convict Overseers.

Habitual Convict Officers receive the same concessions as regards remission, gratuity, etc., as the Casual Convict Officer.

Fetters.

24. The imposition of fetters for punishment or security is becoming less frequent.

1921	...	...	10,702
1922	...	...	8,864
1923	...	...	7,343
1924	...	...	6,781

Escapes.

25. 12 prisoners escaped during the year as compared with 8 during 1923. Six were from Extra Mural Gangs and six from inside jail walls. The institutions from which they escaped are shown in Statement V. None of the cases presented any features of interest and were due to slack supervision of warders or convict officers combined in some cases (e.g., Hindalgi Central Prison) with faulty construction of the buildings in which the prisoners were confined. Nine out of the 12 were recaptured.

Nineteen undertrial prisoners escaped from Sub-Jails as compared with 39 during the previous year. 13 out of the 19 escaped from Sind-Sub-Jails.

Punishments. Convicts and staff.

26. The number of cases of jail offences dealt with by Criminal Courts was 48 as compared with 85 during the previous year. Details are as follows :—

	1923.	1924.
Relating to work ...	29	21
Breach of discipline ...	8	3
Assault ...	32	10
Escape ...	7	5
Causing hurt ...	3	5
Rioting ...	6	...
Attempted suicide ...	...	1
Attempted unnatural offence ...	...	3
	85	48

27. 22,690 offences were dealt with by Superintendents as compared with 22,836 in 1923.

	1923.	1924.
Relating to work ...	12,841	10,951
Prohibited articles ...	2,438	2,874
Assault, Mutiny and Escapes ...	424	444
All other offences ...	7,133	8,421
	22,836	22,690

Sanction to the issue of tobacco to all prisoners (except females and juveniles) who desire it, was given towards the close of the year and is expected to result in a marked decrease in the number of offences in connection with prohibited articles.

The number of punishments inflicted was as follows:—

	1923.	1924.
Minor	15,072	14,900
Major	9,448	9,108
	24,520	24,008

Full details will be found in Statement VI.

Floggings.

28. The number of floggings decreased to 40 as compared with 98 in the previous year and 36 in 1922. The number of cases in which this form of punishment was inflicted at each jail was as follows:—

Yeravda Central Prison	11
Karachi District Prison	4
Aden Special Prison	3
Ahmedabad Central Prison	3
Deccan Convict Gang	3
Hyderabad Central Prison	3
Thana Special Prison	3
Dhulia District Prison	2
H.M.'s House of Correction	2
Hindalgi Central Prison	2
Karwar District Prison	2
Sind Convict Gang	2
Total ...	40

The offences for which whipping was ordered were as follows:—

Assaulting jail officials	30
Mutinous conduct	7
Conduct seriously affecting discipline ...	3

The number of strokes inflicted was:—

10—15	1 case
15—20	5 cases
20—25	2 cases
25—30	32 cases

A detailed report is sent to the Inspector General of Prisons in every case in which flogging is inflicted and in no instance during the year was it considered that this form of punishment had been awarded unnecessarily.

Remissions.

29. The scale of ordinary remission was increased from 3 to 4 days per mensem in the case of a convict and 4 to 5 days per mensem for a Convict Night Watchman.

Special remission was awarded on 7,757 occasions as compared with 5,718 during 1923.

4,317 prisoners were released under the remission system as compared with 2,320 in the previous year. The reason for this has been stated in paragraph 12.

IV.—Health and Diet.

Medical arrangements, hospitals and general health, etc.

30. The general medical arrangements as detailed in last year's report remained unchanged during 1924.

A B. M. S. Medical Officer assisted by two S. M. S. Officers and a compounder was placed in medical charge of the newly opened Hindalgi Central Prison.

31. The sick-rate and death-rate declined still further from the low figures recorded in 1923 :—

—	Average daily population.	Admissions into Hospital	Average daily sick.	Total number of deaths.	Death-rate per 1,000.
1923 ...	12,138	9,579	281·1	132	10·9
1924 ...	12,466	9,575	264·2	128	10·3

32. The death-rate for 1924 was lower than that of the jails in any other Indian Province.

Two jails had death-rates exceeding 20 per mille, viz., Thana (22·8) and Aden (36·4). The latter is such a small institution that one death increases the rate by 10 per mille, and so the high figure in this case is not of any real significance. Four jails, viz., Dharwar, Ratnagiri, Rajkot and Deccan Convict Gang (Visapur) had no mortality whatever.

Details of admissions and deaths at each jail will be found in Statements XIV and XV.

33. The comparison of jail death-rates with those of the Districts in which they are situated is of some interest.

1924.

Jail.	Jail death-rate.	District death-rate.
H.M.'s Common Prison	16·1	33·97
H.M.'s House of Correction	4·0	33·97
Yeravda Central Prison	14·8	31·12
Dhulia District Prison	4·0	30·2

Hyderabad Central Prison	7·9	17·31
Sukkur District Prison	11·6	19·45
Sind Convict Gang	3·1	17·31
Aden Special Prison	36·4	27·44

34. Only one case of cholera occurred during the year. This was at Bijapur and proved fatal. There was no admission for plague and no epidemic of infectious disease at any jail with the exception of a slight outbreak of Influenza (25 cases) at Karwar.

All prisoners are vaccinated on admission and are also inoculated against plague and cholera when these diseases are prevalent amongst the local population.

35. Admissions for Dysentery and Diarrhœa decreased during the year whereas there was a rise in admissions for Malaria, Tuberculosis, Pneumonia and Respiratory diseases.

Tuberculosis.

36. There were 68 admissions and 16 deaths as compared with 62 and 23 in the previous year. The high admission rate for this disease at Yeravda Central Prison is due to cases being transferred there from other jails. There are specially constructed wards for the treatment of Tubercular disease at the following prisons :—

Karachi District Prison.
Yeravda Central Prison.
Hindalgi Central Prison.
Hyderabad Central Prison.
Ahmedabad Central Prison.

Malaria.

37. The highest admission rate for this disease was as in the previous year recorded at the Common Prison, Bombay. Prophylactic measures of the usual kind are adopted at all jails against this disease.

Pneumonia.

38. 58 per cent. of the total admissions and 52 per cent. of the deaths from this disease occurred in the four Sind Jails which contain only 30 per cent. of the total population. Far the highest admission rate was recorded at Sukkur District Prison. The same was the case in 1923. Sukkur jail is grossly overcrowded with an average population of 686 though designed to hold only 386. Moreover these prisoners are concentrated on an area of 6 acres whereas according to the recommendations of the Indian Jails Committee the minimum should be 10½ acres. The relief of the overcrowding at this jail is of urgent importance and is at present under the consideration of Government.

Dysentery and Diarrhœa.

39. These diseases were somewhat less prevalent than during the previous year but otherwise the figures present no feature of particular interest.

Accommodation.

40. In the following 12 jails the daily average number of prisoners exceeding the sanctioned accommodation :—

Prisons.	Accommodation.	Daily average strength.
H. M.'s Common Prison	200	364
H. M.'s House of Correction	220	252
Yeravda Central Prison	1,548	1,684
Bijapur District Prison	313	329
Thana Special Prison	688	743
Ahmedabad Central Prison	1,019	1,263
Rajkot Agency Prison	85	89
Karachi District Prison	368	503
Hyderabad Central Prison	930	1,392
Sukkur District Prison	386	686
Sind Convict Gang	536	650
Aden Special Prison	96	108

In most cases there was no actual overcrowding of barracks for the excess was accommodated in workshops and the area contained within the jail wall was amply sufficient for the additional number. The only jails where the health of the prisoners appear to have been adversely affected by overcrowding were Sukkur District Prison and His Majesty's Common Prison, Bombay. The latter had a far higher sick rate than any other jail. It consists of old and by no means sanitary buildings, many of which constantly house far more prisoners than ought to be the case. With the opening of the new Arthur Road Jail early in 1926, the Common Prison will be evacuated entirely.

Overcrowding in Sukkur District Prison has been referred to in paragraph 38.

These figures are much the same as usual and call for no comment. Details will be found in Statement B.

Composition of diet, feeding arrangements, etc.

43. There was no change in the general dietary and the method of cooking and issuing food as recorded in last year's report. Details of the scale of diet in Prisons and Gangs will be found in Statement No. VIII.

V.—Industries and Labour.

Jail Gardens.

44. The daily average number of prisoners employed was 927 as compared with 790 in the previous year. The increase is mainly due to the opening of the Hindalgi Central Prison where a considerable number of convicts had to be utilized in starting a garden.

The value of the produce was Rs. 58,362 as compared with Rs. 57,161 in 1923 and the cost of vegetables and condiments purchased during the year fell from Rs. 44,656 to Rs. 39,200. These figures point to the increasing efforts which are being made to render all jails self-supporting in this respect. The main difficulty every where is the matter of water supply during the dry months. Whenever possible jails which produce more than their own requirements send vegetables daily to less favoured institutions, e.g., Thana Special Prison and Ratnagiri District Prison supply the Common Prison in Bombay and Hyderabad Central Prison sends to Sukkur District Prison. Surplus vegetables which cannot be used immediately are wherever possible dried and kept for issue during the less productive season.

New gardens were made during the year at Hindalgi Central Prison, Sukkur District Prison and His Majesty's House of Correction, Bombay.

Nature of work.

45. The daily average number of prisoners sentenced to labour was 10,029 or 460 more than in the previous year. There was no important change in the forms of labour on which convicts are employed.

Jail repairs.

46. The increase of the number employed from 270 to 342 was mainly due to special repairs required at the Sind Convict Gang to make good the damage caused by floods and to the erection of the barbed wire fencing, etc., at Visapur. The cost of current repairs to jail buildings was Rs. 35,002 as compared with Rs. 28,594 in 1923.

Extra Mural Labour.

47. (a) Deccan Convict Gang is nearing the completion of its labours on the Visapur Tank Dam. The average number employed on the work was 585 as compared with 703 in 1923. The reduction is due to the policy referred to in last year's report whereby the total strength of this Gang has been limited to 1,000 prisoners. The total cash earnings were Rs. 55,239 as compared with Rs. 35,763 in the previous year and Rs. 42,590 in 1922. The increase is accounted for by adjustments for work done in 1923 having been effected in 1924 but there is no doubt that there was increased industry on the part of the convicts in spite of the reduction of their numbers. This is well brought out by the figures of the average earning per prisoner during the last three years :—

				Rs.	a.	p.
1922	...	...	...	40	15	0
1923	...	...	...	50	14	0
1924	...	...	...	94	7	0

This financial result combined with excellent discipline and absence of complaints on the part of prisoners or staff reflect great credit on the tactful and efficient management by the Superintendent, Mr. F. B. Plunkett.

(b) Sind Convict Gang leads a precarious existence as regards labour. The main stand-by in the latter respect is breaking ballast for the North Western Railway. Gangs were also employed on transhipping goods at the Hyderabad Railway Station. Owing to the fact that the Railway Company's requirements of ballast were unusually small the cash receipts declined to Rs. 3,257 (Rs. 15-1-0 per head) as compared with Rs. 24,367 (Rs. 88-4-0 per head) in 1923. Large stocks of broken stone remained on hand at the end of the year ready to be handed over to the Railway as soon as it is needed. It is very desirable that some more regular means should be devised for employing prisoners who cannot be accommodated in the regular Jails in Sind and who have to be relegated to the Sind Convict Gang.

Large public works such as the one that has been so successful at Visapur in the Deccan are difficult to find in the north and climatic conditions there are not favourable to the employment of convicts in large numbers on extra mural work. In my opinion the surplus prisoners in Sind could be best employed in erecting a new permanent jail which is very much needed and would provide work for several years.

(c) Sukkur District Prison continued to supply prison labour for coaling engines at Sukkur and Rohri Railway Stations. The net profit of this amounted to Rs. 10,183 as compared with Rs. 10,370 in 1923. The question was raised during the year as to the possibility of employing prisoners on the Sukkur Barrage construction works but the Chief Engineer stated that the essential condition of keeping convicts separate from free coolies could not be fulfilled.

(d) His Majesty's Common Prison, Bombay.—From May 1924 onwards this jail supplied 50 prisoners daily to the Bombay Improvement Trust for work in the quarry opposite the jail. Receipts on this account amounted to Rs. 4,586.

Intra Mural Manufactures.

48. The average daily number of prisoners employed on these was 2,352 as compared with 2,126 in the previous year. If to these are added the numbers employed on remunerative extra mural public works as detailed in paragraph 47 the total average daily number employed on manufactures was 3,283 as compared with 3,278 in 1923 or 32·7 per cent. and 34·3 per cent., respectively of the total jail population. These figures do not include the large number of prisoners employed on weaving and making up convict clothing. The latter are shown in the statistics as employed in preparing articles for use in jails whereas they clearly ought to be included amongst those working on jail manufactures. The fact of their exclusion results in the figure of percentage of prisoners employed on manufactures in Bombay Jails comparing unfavourably with those of other provinces whereas there is no reason for thinking that this is really the case.

49. It will be observed from Statement No. XII that the average earnings of each prisoner employed on jail manufactures fell to Rs. 51-7-0 as compared with Rs. 78-7-0 in 1923. This was due to the increase in the amount of cash drawn on manufacturing account which was largely attributable to postponements of the promised dates of deliveries of yarns contracted for through the Indian Stores Department. In consequence of this several jails had to make additional purchases so as to keep their factories going and were left with unnecessarily large stocks of raw materials at the close of the year. The actual amount paid into the Treasury on manufacturing account was over a lakh of rupees more than in 1923. The average profit per prisoner employed on jail manufactures amounted to Rs. 74 as compared with Rs. 74-13-8 in the previous year.

Paper making.

50. Great efforts were made by the Superintendents, Hyderabad Central Prison and Hindalgi Central Prison to establish this industry. It was thought that jail made paper might be used for making envelopes as is done in the Punjab but the Bombay Stationery Department consider that it is preferable to use imported paper for this purpose as it is stronger and more suitable for use with economy labels. Jail made blotting paper was not at first considered to be of good enough quality for issue but at the time of writing such improvement has been effected that the Stationery Department has placed a trial order for 25 reams with Hyderabad Central Prison.

51. Yeravda Prison Press.—The outturn of the Press during 1924, compared with 1923 was as under :—

Serial No.	Name of operation.	Outturn for 1923.	Outturn for 1924.	Unit.
1	Composing ...	21,995	18,495	Page F'cap Folio solid pica.

17	Embossing ...	3,47,000	3,14,000	Impressions.
18	Miscellaneous productive work.	748	1,087	Hours.

During the year 1924, the work has decreased owing to general economy observed in all offices and particularly to the reduction in the work for officers under the Central Government and Military Department. In the aggregate the outturn for 1924 shows a decrease of about 14 per cent. when compared with that of previous year though the output in the various sections of the Bindery has increased.

The number of men employed in the Press was 261 against 303 in 1923. The total cost of their maintenance was Rs. 36,164-13-0 calculated on an average cost of Rs. 138-9-0 per prisoner.

Quinine Distribution.

52. Quinine powders for sale at Post Offices continued to be made up in Yeravda and Hyderabad Central Prisons. The sale price was reduced from one anna to nine pies per 10 grain packet. The profit amounted to Rs. 5,517 as compared with Rs. 5,038 in 1923.

The financial control of this industry was transferred to the Director of Public Health during the year.

The sale of boxes of quinine tablets was discontinued by Yeravda Central Prison and taken over by the Medical Store Depôt where the tablets are manufactured and packed.

53. Hindalgi Central Prison.—The factory at this Jail was opened during the year.

Cotton, woollen and coir weaving and the manufacture of cane furniture were the principal industries. After much trouble a brick kiln was successfully started and it is believed that a good market will be found for the outturn. As mentioned above an attempt was made to establish paper making but the results have hitherto not received the approval of the Stationery Department. Owing to the necessity for purchasing an initial stock of raw materials and the slow process of building up a market for the manufactured goods there was a deficit of Rs. 17,015 on the working of this factory. Goods worth Rs. 1,800 were sold at the Indian National Congress Camp Belgaum in December 1924.

54. Supplies of jail made articles to other Government Departments.

The value of these was Rs. 81,940 as compared with Rs. 67,785 in 1923.

Details are as follows :—

	Rs.
Public Works Department	14,553
Police Department	28,460
Marine Department	3,320
Military Department	1,991
Somaliland Protectorate	2,538
Other Civil Departments	31,078
	81,940

The following articles were supplied to the Stationery Department:—

Name of Prison.	Name of article.	Quantity.
Hyderabad Central Prison.	Blotting paper ...	1 Ream.
Ahmedabad do.	Tape white ...	2,600 Doz. bundles.
	Dusters 30" × 30" ...	300 „
	Dungree Inferior ...	4,530 Yards.
Yeravda do.	File strings ...	1,06,992 Nos.
	Dungree Inferior ...	622 Yards.
	„ Superior ...	976 „
	Correspondence cane trays ...	50 Nos.
Dharwar Juvenile Jail ...	Rulers, round, long 26" ...	50 Doz.
	„ short 18" ...	50 „
	Pokers ..	100 Doz.

Clothing to the value of Rs. 1,21,380 was woven and issued to jails for the use of prisoners as compared with Rs. 82,965 in 1923. The increase was due to the order that each prisoner must be in possession of two suits instead of one.

55. Price of jail made articles.—Owing to the decision to increase the nominal value of jail labour to annas 8 per head per day the prices of articles were in many cases raised to a prohibitive extent and sales fell off very considerably. The original order had therefore to be modified and prices are now fixed at as high a figure as is possible so as to command a ready sale but with the proviso that the selling price must not be less than 33⅓ per cent. above the cost of the raw materials used (including wastage). Orders have also been issued that only such articles as can be quickly made and which command a ready market shall in future be manufactured for sale. At Bijapur and Dharwar Jails the experiment was tried of selling jail made goods through commission agents who were authorised to charge their customers 6¼ per cent. above jail prices. The results were fairly satisfactory.

56. Organisation of jail industries.—Mr. Thiselton-Dyer, Mechanical Engineer to Government was requested by Government in July 1924 to investigate this subject in all its aspects. Owing to pressure of his ordinary work and his departure on leave he has not yet been able to submit his report which, it is anticipated, will be of the greatest value and assistance. Jail factories ought to be devoted mainly to turning out country made articles required by Government departments. Every effort is made to secure orders from the latter and a circular on the subject was issued to all heads of departments in October 1924. Special negotiations were also entered into with the Police Department, Royal Indian Marine and Stationery Department to secure contracts for their 1925-1926 requirements of such articles as can be made in jails. These efforts were fairly successful but purchasing officers naturally have regard to their budgets and the kudos to be obtained by economy and therefore insist on considering jail tenders on equal terms with bazar offers and giving the contract to whichever is cheapest.

Obviously it must always be more economical to Government considered as a whole to have their requirements of country made articles manufactured in jails where the only cash outlay is the cost of raw materials and the simple plant employed whereas the merchant in the bazar has to include the cost of labour and also his and the manufacturer's profits. Heads of departments cannot however be expected to take this broad view and nothing much can be done unless Government will adopt the policy, which has been successful elsewhere, of insisting that every department shall obtain all its requirements of country made articles from jails and the Treasury Officer is instructed to refuse to pass a bill for purchases obtained elsewhere unless a certificate is attached to the effect that the article cannot be jail made.

The adoption of such a policy would enable the jail factory department to be thoroughly organized on a commercial basis and would make it worth while installing power machinery. For example jails ought to weave the very large amount of Khaki drill which is used annually for Police and other uniforms and which is at present imported from abroad but this cannot be done with the ordinary hand loom and primitive dyeing appliances.

VI.—Financial.

57. The total cost of maintaining the prisoners was Rs. 19,72,181 and the average cost per head Rs. 158-9-2 as compared with Rs. 18,36,065 and Rs. 151-10-8 in 1923. The increase is due to the larger population, to additional establishment charges owing to the opening of Hindalgi Central Prison and to the initial issue of two suits of clothing to each prisoner in accordance with the recommendation of the Indian Jails Committee.

After deducting profits earned by jail factories the net cost amounted to Rs. 17,29,243 (Rs. 139 per head) as compared with Rs. 15,90,682 (Rs. 131 per head) in 1923.

Dietary charges.

58. In spite of the increased population the total cost of dietary fell from Rs. 8,62,250 to Rs. 8,17,529 and the cost per head from Rs. 71-3-7 to Rs. 65-11-10. At most jails there has been a progressive reduction in the expense of feeding prisoners during the last four years. This is partly due to the fall in prices and partly to the economy which is exercised by Superintendents and Jailors. At most jails the contract system is in force but departmental purchase of provisions was adopted in the Sind Jails (except Sukkur) from 1st October 1924 owing to the contractors having formed a ring to put up prices against the Jail Department. The result has been very satisfactory and will probably be continued and extended to other localities as more godown accommodation is provided for storage of food grains.

Hospital charges.

59. The total cost was Rs. 74,005 as compared with Rs. 66,759 in 1923. The rise was largely due to the opening of the Hindalgi Central Prison Hospital which had to be equipped with medicines and clothing at a cost of Rs. 8,659. There was also increased expenditure on account of adjustments in payment for supplies from the Medical Store Depôt during the previous year. On the other hand the cost of diet for sick and convalescents was nearly Rs. 10,000 less than in 1923. Of this amount Rs. 6,600 represent savings on account of special diet to out patients.

There is no restriction in the issue of dietary extras to prisoners whether in or out of hospital who really require them but every effort is made to discourage the issue of special food unnecessarily and credit is due to all Medical Officers for their loyal efforts to promote economy without injury to the interests of their patients.

VII.—Miscellaneous.

Visitors.

60. Five hundred aud forty-nine visits were paid by official and 209 by non-official visitors as compared with 560 and 172 during the previous year.

Sixty-six quarterly meetings of visitors, of which District Magistrates are Chairmen, were held as compared with 57 in 1923.

His Excellency the Governor of Bombay visited Yeravda Central Prison, Deccan Convict Gang, Visapur and His Majesty's Common Prison, Bombay, during the year.

61. Advisory Committees on long term prisoners as constituted by Government Resolution, Home Department, No. 432, dated the 27th November 1923 sat for the first time during the year.

They consist of the District Magistrate, Sessions Judge and two non-official members, with the Inspector General of Prisons as president and consider the cases of all prisoners sentenced substantively to not less than five years imprisonment and who have completed half their sentences or 3½ years whichever is greater. They meet six monthly at each jail. Twenty-seven meetings were held during the year and the cases of 898 prisoners were considered of whom 325 were recommended for release either conditionally or unconditionally. A report on the working of the committee with recommendations regarding alteration of the personnel and rules was made to Government in November 1924 and orders are awaited.

Buildings.

62. Funds were alloted by Government for the following major works during the year:—

			Rs.
Bombay	...	For construction of new Criminal Jail with electric installation on Arthur Road	4,19,300
Nasik	...	For constructing a new Central Prison	2,50,000
Ahmedabad Central Prison.		For completing Tubercle ward with six cells ...	14,000
Deccan Convict Gang.		For completing barbed wire fencing round the older barracks in the jail	4,000
Hyderabad Central Prison.		For completing Tubercle ward with three cells ...	9,000
Hindalgi Central Prison.		For completing the construction of the Central Prison	10,000
		For completing the work of water supply... ...	3,000
		For completing the work of drainage	10,000
Karachi District Prison.		For constructing quarters for reserve guard warders. ...	33,500
		For completing Tubercle ward with three cells ...	20,000

Minor works to the value of Rs. 48,900 were financed during the year from the discretionary grant at my disposal.

63. During the year the following jails were visited by either Colonel Mell, I.M.S., or myself mostly on at least two occasions :—

Yeravda Central Prison	Ahmedabad Central Prison.
Hyderabad do.	Hindalgi do.
H.M.'s Common Prison	Civil Jail, Bombay.
H. M.'s House of Corrrection	Bijapur District Prison.
	Dharwar Juvenile Jail.
Dhulia District Prison	Karachi District Prison.
Ratnagiri do.	Sukkur do.
Thana Special Prison	Rajkot Agency Prison.
	Sind Convict Gang.
Decoan Convict Gang	Nasik Sub-Jail.
Shikarpur Sub-Jail	Poona City Sub-Jail.

64. Rules on the following subjects were altered or introduced during the year :—

(a) The imposition of fetters and standing handcuffs and the abolition of solitary confinement.

(b) Offences for which flogging may be awarded and procedure as regards reports of floggings.

(c) Increased rates of ordinary remmission for convicts and convict night watchmen.

(d) Increase of general holidays in Jails from 3 to 11 per annum.

(e) Issue of tobacco as an experimental measure to all prisoners except females and juveniles.

(f) Disposal of petitions from prisoners condemned to death.

(g) Recovery of maintenance charges of prisoners from Indian States.

65. The Released Prisoners' Aid Society, Bombay, continued to render assistance in the way of food and clothing to released prisoners. Four hundred and seventy-three persons from the Bombay Jails, 5 from Yeravda and, 6 from Thana were thus helped during the year. Efforts are made to find employment for ex-convicts but without much success. The Society intends to erect a hostel for released prisoners at Agripada at a cost of Rs. 25,000 of which Government is contributing half. In addition the Society does good work in helping and advising first offenders who are not sentenced to imprisonment by Courts.

There is a similar Society at Bijapur which renders useful assistance to released prisoners at that place and one is being started at Ahmedabad.

66. Religious and moral instruction is given to prisoners at most Jails by voluntary workers of whom the following gentlemen are specially mentioned for their regular attendance and the interest they take in the moral uplifting of the prisoners ;—

Yeravda Central Prison	...	Members of the Poona group of the Order of the Star in the East.
		Officers of the Salvation Army in Poona.
Ahmedabad Central Prison	...	Khan Bahadur M. I. Kadri.
		Mr. Dayabhai Derasari.
Dharwar Juvenile Jail	...	Diwan Bahadur S. K. Rodda, C.I.E.
		Khan Saheb A. M. Moulvi.
Bijapur District Prison	...	Mr. M. A. Faroqui, Mr. W. A. Shirgupi.
Dhulia District Prison	...	Mr. G. K. Kudav.

It is particularly difficult apparently to find gentlemen in Sind who are willing to undertake this form of charity.

In the Bombay town jails a system has been recently approved whereby a Committee under the chairmanship of the Chief Presidency Magistrate arranges for lecturers, who are paid their expenses by Government, to attend at one or other of the jails regularly each Sunday. It is suggested that this scheme should be extended to all jails.

Special attention was given during the year to the provision of books for the use of literate prisoners and well equipped libraries have been formed or are in process of formation at every large jail.

67. With few exceptions the superior staff of the department worked excellently during the year and it is difficult to select names for special mention. I would however bring the following to notice :—

Major E. E. Doyle, D.S.O., I.M.S., Superintendent, Ahmedabad Central Prison and Yeravda Central Prison.

Mr. T. J. Reed, Superintendent, Hindalgi Central Prison.

Khan Bahadur K. M. Clubwala, Superintendent, Hyderabad Central Prison.

Mr. F. B. Plunkett, Superintendent, Deccan Convict Gang.

Mr. W. Laxton, Superintendent, Karachi District Prison.

Dr. V. L. Sathe, Superintendent, Dhulia District Prison.

Mr. R. J. Jakatdar, Jailor, Ahmedabad Central Prison and Superintendent, His Majesty's Common Prison.

Mr. E. P. Warner, Jailor, Bijapur District Prison.

Mr. B. G. Akut, Jailor, Thana Special Prison.

I also desire to commend the good work of Mr. S. R. Chaubal, Personal Assistant, and Mr. S. M. Gokhale, Head Accountant, in the office of the Inspector General of Prisons.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. H. MURRAY, M.D.,
Lieut.-Colonel, I.M.S.,
Inspector General of Prisons,
Bombay Presidency.
